

Cottage Hill Christian Academy
Mobile, Alabama

Head of School
July 1, 2010

Cottage Hill Christian Academy seeks a Head of School to succeed its long tenured, retiring Head. Founded in 1961 as a ministry of Cottage Hill Baptist Church, this college preparatory school enrolls more than 600 students from K2 through 12th grade on two campuses in west Mobile. Cottage Hill Christian Academy provides an effective academic education with a distinctly Christian worldview. With the planned retirement of its current Head of School, CHCA is looking for a leader who will lead the school into its next phase of development, building on the progress of recent years. The school enjoys a dedicated faculty, supportive parents, and an admirable student body.

The Head of School is the Chief Executive Officer and academic leader of the school and reports to the School Committee and Senior Pastor, who sits on this Board. The Head is expected to build upon the existing strengths of CHCA and to provide strategic, visionary leadership as the school enters its next phase of development. Key traits of the right candidate include a demonstrated Christian faith, strong relational and team-building skills, and experience and competence in articulating and implementing a strong vision for the school. Compensation is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applicants should send resume, references, and statement of educational beliefs as Word documents (.doc) to the search consultant. For Opportunity Profile, to inquire, or make a referral, contact:
